Middle school and high school students and parents/guardians are invited to the free Just Think: Teens Making Smart Choices expo on January 23 for participative, informative exhibits; live music; free refreshments; and fun.

This year's expo will feature several groups and individuals from Newton South, including the Newtones and Crescendo, two a capella groups; South Asian Students Association, which will provide free henna tattoos; the Ligerbots; and Constantine Foehl, magician.
